

Jan-Care Ambulance
General Emergency Medical Services
The Mark A. Kinder Scholarship
Purpose, Eligibility Requirements, and Application Process

The Mark A. Kinder Scholarship is issued by Jan-Care Ambulance/General Emergency Medical Services to an employee of the company or their children for use at a post-secondary institute of learning. The award commemorates the life and work of EMT Mark A. Kinder and is meant to inspire students to further their academic careers while helping to eliminate some of the financial burden such study can impose. One award of $1,000.00 ($500.00 disbursed in both the Fall and Spring semesters) is given to one winner.

To be eligible for the Mark A. Kinder Scholarship one must: (1) either be a current employee of Jan-Care Ambulance/General Emergency Medical Services and pursuing a post-secondary certification or degree, or be a child of a Jan-Care Ambulance/General Emergency Medical Services employee¹ and either currently pursuing or intend to pursue a post-secondary certification or degree; (2) either be a high school senior, full-time student (12 or more college credits per semester), or part-time student (less than 12 college credits per semester); (3) have maintained at least a 3.00 GPA; and (4) submit one letter of recommendation composed by a non-family member. The award can only be received once.

To apply for the Scholarship, the Application Form must be downloaded, completed in its entirety, and emailed along with transcripts and the letter of recommendation to scholarship@jancare.com, not before March 15 and no later than June 15. Winners are selected by committee and will be announced August 1.

¹ Employee must have been full-time at least six (6) months prior to application date and remain full-time through the award date.
